

Tribal Nations Training Week: Cyber Preparedness Track
Hosted by the Center for Domestic Preparedness
Featuring the National Cyber Preparedness Consortium

FEMA

September 12–19, 2026 | Anniston, Alabama

Join Tribal leaders, emergency managers, IT professionals, and stakeholders for a week of specialized cyber preparedness training, tailored to the unique needs of Tribal Nations.

Schedule & Courses

September 13 – Opening Ceremony

Monday & Tuesday

MGT-384: Preparing for Cyber Attacks and Incidents (TEEX)

Wednesday

MGT-301: Community Cybersecurity Preparedness Simulation (CIAS)

Thursday

AWR-428: Practical Internet of Things Security (NUARI)

Friday

MGT-328: Critical Thinking and Risk Management in a Cyber-Converged World (NUARI)

AWR-432: Integrating Cyber Hazard Response into Exercise Planning (NUARI)

Click HERE to Apply!!

“Strengthening Indigenous Readiness, Honoring Sovereignty, and Achieving Resilience Through an All-Hazards Approach”

“Training the Best for the Worst”